

Dear friends,

The hard work and talents of our superb cast and director have been incredible to me. All of these fine people have other, demanding jobs -- many full-time -- and yet have found a way to fully prepare for tonight's theatrical experience. I hope you enjoy the show!

Sasha Allen (director) is an accomplished actress and the director of our two plays this evening! The illustrious Sasha Allen is a native of the "Biggest Little City" in New Jersey – Camden! A graduate of Rutgers University, Sasha is currently perfecting her acting craft in Philadelphia and New York City. Be sure to keep up with Sasha's fan pages on Facebook (SASHA RE-ACTRESS ALLEN), Instagram, and Twitter (@iamsashaa) for news and events!

Albert Fried-Cassorla (playwright) is very happy to be working with our dedicated and talented troupe. He is the author of several plays, including: Life in a Washing Machine, Two Harolds, Times Two, Info-Boy!, My TriniDad, and others. You may see some of his plays and movies on a Youtube. Key words: Fried-Cassorla or playwrightguy.

His other activities include: volunteering at Edison-Fareira High School, working with Philadelphia Dramatists Center, Melrose Park Neighbors Association, and Melrose Park Philosophy Club. He is a father of twins and the fortunate husband of Martha. See more at www.fried-cas.com/creative cell: 215 219 4772. albfcc@verizon.net

Dave Polgar (Zachary, Kim Chi King) hails from Media and is a former resident actor of Hedgerow Theatre, where he studied under the tutelage of Penelope Reed, Zoran Kovcic, Jared Reed. He is excited to bring Albert's work to life under Sasha's vision, and to play with a talented cast. Enjoy the show!
