Lake Keuka. One of the lesser known finger lakes. West of Ithaca. I caught this sunset on 4th of July evening, 2002.

Wantagh Park. Beauty is where you find it. Most people would not think of Wantagh, a suburb just east of Bellmore, Long Island, where I grew up. But sunset and water transform everything!

Waktins Glen. More than a race-track! The natural beauty of this place is so pretty and relaxing. We rode to the top, walked down in less than an hour and took a bus back up.
